Where did you come from?

I've been right under your nose

I've gone soft. My bartender is my guardian angel

Hey! He's asking me again...

Sensitive to bright lights, the deepest dark curls my eyes, fically.

Okay, I'll call you soon, okay? You may actually find that that's essentially what you will find. That's just great! Thnx

Hmm

Thanks, but please don't interrupt, I haven't finished yet.

Painting has endured for centuries, it has changed its appearance numerous times, yet continues to change afresh.

Hmm

Forget it, you were saying

They say it's true...

You don't actually believe it, do you?

Believe what, that art makes you better?

Mostly the mythological part.
